

Boundary states for background independent string field theory

Gordon W. Semenoff
semenoff@physics.ubc.ca
University of British Columbia

Some aspects of background independent string field theory will be discussed. A generalization of boundary states to describe D-branes with a tachyonic condensate in Bosonic string theory will be outlined, as well as a proposal for computing string loop corrections to the tachyon potential.