

Strong Approximation Schemes for Stochastic Delay Differential Equations

Evelyn Buckwar

`buckwar@mathematik.hu-berlin.de`

Dept. of Mathematics, Humboldt-Universitaet zu Berlin, Germany

In this talk convergence results for strong approximation schemes for stochastic delay differential equations are presented. In particular we will discuss the Euler-Maruyama method for equations with discrete, variable and distributed time-lag. Numerical experiments illustrate the theoretical results. The talk is based on joint work with C.T.H. Baker (Manchester, UK).