

Local Isometric Embedding

We survey some recent developments of local isometric embedding of 2-d Riemannian manifold into 3-d Euclidean space. When the Gauss curvature vanishes, the corresponding Darboux equation is degenerate or mixed type fully nonlinear equation, which was largely unexplored before. Both positive and negative results will be discussed.