Renormalization of multiple zeta values at non-positive integers

Li Guo

Mathematics and Computer Science, Rutgers University

liguo@newark.rutgers.edu

Abstract

In contrast to the extensive study of multiple zeta functions at positive integers, very little is known about the special values of multiple zeta functions at other integers. We study these special values using a regularization renormalization process, adapting the Hopf algebra approach of Connes and Kreimer for quantum field theory.