A stochastic interpretation of the Mumford-Shah functional

Tapio Helin

Institute of Mathematics, Helsinki University of Technology

tapio.helin@tkk.fi

Abstract

In 1989 Mumford and Shah proposed their celebrated minimization method for image segmentation. The method combines shape and functional minimization thus making the computational problem challenging. In this talk we discuss the connections between the Mumford-Shah functional and the Bayesian approach in statistical inverse problems.