

Western Canadian Conference for Young Researchers in Mathematics

Travel Reimbursement Form

As agreed, the Pacific Institute for the Mathematical Sciences (PIMS) will reimburse out-of-province participants up to $150 for any travel related expenses to attend this conference. Your $100 registration fee will be refunded to you as well. Please bring this form and any supporting documents and submit them to the organizers at time of registration. If you do not submit it at the time of registration, you can mail it to the organizers within two weeks of the end of the conference.

For those traveling by air: Please attach a copy of your receipts and your boarding passes.

For those traveling by car: Mileage will be reimbursed at $0.33/km, according to the University of Calgary guidelines.
